Dublin History Group Research Centre in 2016

Well another year is upon us so what are we up to this year.

Adelaide Northern District Family History Group and Lisa Mansell will be back for some great workshops and we will have some new events and workshops .

The DHG was lucky enough obtain a grant from District Council of Murrumbidgee's Community Partnerships to buy a projector and screen to use for presentations so we plan to use it on the 13th March with a presentation on Explore Trove (see details below)

Our Fallen Blessed

On Remembrance Sunday (8th November) Father Bart O'Donovan came and blessed our Seven Fallen Soldiers from World War One . The plaques are on the new Remembrance Garden edging, the Gallipoli Roses and Rosemary are growing well and will form a lovely backdrop for them.

DHG Christmas Raffle raised $481, thank you to everyone for your support we will use the money to add more plaques to honour the fallen from other conflicts. The DHG are doing further research on our soldiers your assistance is always gratefully accepted.
